

Magician Joe Holiday Biography

Over the past twenty-five years, award winning magician and illusionist Joe Holiday has continued to grab the attention of live audiences across the globe. On screen, Joe's original and engaging style landed him on international television as a featured guest star in Harary's multi-million dollar "Mega Magic Illusion Show" thrilling over a million viewers throughout Asia.

On stage, Holiday's unique brand of comedy magic, intrigue, and excitement has crossed cultural and language barriers, solidifying him as a professional entertainer. He has been a featured performer in countless shows throughout Singapore, China, Seoul South Korea, up and down the east coast, including the casinos his hometown of Atlantic City.

Holiday has received the Atlantic City Weekly Nightlife Award for "Best Local Comedian (2015)" and the TripAdvisor Award of Excellence for his self-produced show, "Magic & Mayhem" The show's premiere enjoyed a successful, two-year run with over 500 performances, at the famed Comedy Stop in the Tropicana Hotel & Casino in Atlantic City.

Recently, Joe completed a sixteen-year residency for Club Wyndham Skyline tower, "His shows have the ability to keep customers and audiences coming back night after night" said hotel director Megan Scherer. His clean professional style and material have made him a choice entertainer at major events for mega companies such as Google International, Honda Motor Corporation, and KPMG.

Joe made a guest star appearance on the Bravo Network's Next Gen NYC series, season #1 called "Blame it on the boardwalk". Joe was invited to entertain the entire cast on camera for Brooks Marks Birthday at the Ocean Casino.

In January 2026, Joe Holiday had the honored of performing his magic act for not only our own U.S. military troops, but for troops from around the world stationed at Joint base Al-Udeid Air Force base in Doha Qatar along with many other celebrity acts.

Hailed as "Atlantic City's Favorite Magician" by the Press of Atlantic City, Joe Holiday currently spends his time in Southern New Jersey with his wife Sharon and their two daughters Angelina and Marguerite, and as the resident magician for world class resorts including Mohonk Mountain House, Wyndham Resorts, and Marriott Vacation Clubs.